Large Backpack

You never believe what I saw in the hallway.
It was a large backpack. It was big than the ceiling. I went to the room.
The big backpack trying to smash us. The backpack took the door down and trying to hurt us. We began to hurt the backpack.
Then we threw him in the trash. We never saw him again, but he was a mean backpack. The end of the story.

Score Point: 2

This response is considered flawed. A low degree of proficiency in narrative writing skills is reflected. The writer remains focused on the backpack and organizes the response sequentially. Although there are some serious errors in spelling and usage, the main flaw is the responses' lack of development. The writer includes very little detail to describe what happened.
